HOW YOU HELP

The success of our organization would not be possible without the support of those in our community.

Whether by volunteering or donating, your involvement helps us to provide Wilmington's inner city youth where they can grow in strength as individuals, enjoy life learning experiences, and aspire for bright and successful futures.

We need your assistance in Building a Brighter Future for our Community.

PALW MISSION

Building brighter futures, engaging with public safety and empowering families to build stronger communities.

WHO WE ARE

PAL was founded in 1914 by Captain John Sweeney, a New York City Commanding officer. Since our opening in Wilmington in 2002, we have remained committed to providing our youth a safe haven to go afterschool to channel their energies in positive directions in order to promote self-esteem, good character, life choices and healthy lifestyles.

WHAT WE DO

Our organization has a full time police officer and dedicated staff who work to enhance the positive moral development of our youth through a large variety of Education, Prevention and Health & Wellness Programs.

- Our organization has served over 42,000 youth in Wilmington & New Castle County in our 23 years of service.
- Education - Early Learning, Out of School Time, and Summer Enrichment since 2010 has served 450 youth per year and 7,000 since existence.
- Prevention, Health & Wellness - Youth served through our general programming has served 1,500 per year and 35,000 youth served.
